Proposed by Initiative Petition

Amendment

TITLE

Protecting Ohioans' Constitutional Rights

SUMMARY

This Amendment would add a new section 23 to Article I of the Ohio Constitution:

The Protecting Ohioans' Constitutional Rights Amendment creates a private cause of action on behalf of persons whose rights, privileges and immunities under Ohio's Constitution are violated, or caused to be violated, by "government actors." Government actors under the terms of this Amendment include (1) the "State" of Ohio, which is defined to include, but is not limited to, the offices of all elected state officers and all departments and other instrumentalities of the State of Ohio, (2) "political subdivisions" of Ohio, which is defined to mean any body corporate or politic responsible for governmental activities within a geographic subsection of the State, including but not limited to a municipal corporation, township, county, or school district, and (3) "public employees" of the State or its political subdivisions, which is defined to mean any individual who is an officer, agent, employee, or servant, of the State or a political subdivision, whether or not compensated or full-time or part-time, if that individual is authorized to act and is acting within the scope of the officer's, agent's, employee's, or servant's employment by the State or political subdivision, as well as any individual or "business entity," which is defined to include corporations, associations, firms, limited liability companies, partnerships, sole proprietorships, or other entities engaged in business, that is an independent contractor of the State or one of its political subdivisions and who is authorized to act and is acting under the color of law.

A "government actor," as defined above, is liable under this Amendment for its deprivation of a person's constitutional rights if it is proven by a preponderance of evidence that the government actor's acts or omissions caused the person to be deprived of any constitutional right under the Ohio Constitution. In addition to being liable as government actors for causing deprivations of persons' constitutional rights under the Ohio Constitution, the State and its political subdivisions, whether or not joined as defendants in any civil action created by this Amendment, are also liable for the conduct of their public employees, including independent contractors, who are found liable based on a preponderance of the evidence for deprivations of a person's constitutional rights under this Amendment, and who are also proven by a preponderance of evidence to have been acting on behalf of, under color of, or within the course or scope of authority granted by the State or political subdivision.

Terminating a public employee shall not affect the liability of the State or political subdivision for the terminated public employee's conduct.

Ohio's Courts of Common Pleas have subject matter jurisdiction over the civil action created by this Amendment. Venue over the civil action created by this Amendment shall be determined by Ohio's laws and rules of venue that are applicable to civil actions.

In any action filed under this Amendment, no government actor shall enjoy or may rely upon any immunities or defenses, or any subset thereof, which are only available to government actors, including but not limited to (1) qualified immunity; (2) sovereign immunity; (3) prosecutorial immunity; and (4) any immunity provided to the State, political subdivisions, or public employees by statute.

Remedies for constitutional violations by government actors under this Amendment include any or all of the following relief: (1) compensation for economic and non-economic damages, without limitation; (2) equitable or injunctive relief; (3) recovery of reasonable attorney's fees, regardless of whether the attorney provided services on an hourly, contingent, or pro bono basis; and (4) any other remedies prescribed by State or federal law or available pursuant to common law. In addition to the relief awarded to the person bringing the action under this Amendment, the court shall order any government actor found liable for the deprivation of a person's constitutional rights to take reasonable measures to prevent a similar rights violation from re-occurring.

A finding of liability against a public employee under this Amendment is just cause for termination of the employment, agreement, or contract giving rise to the public employee's status as a public employee.

The private cause of action created by this Amendment may be tried before the bench or a jury, at the election of the person bringing the action pursuant to this Amendment, but in either case all violations must be proven by a preponderance of evidence. A claim made under this Amendment must be commenced no later than six years from the date that the deprivation of a constitutional right is alleged to have occurred.

All claims must be commenced no later than six years from the date the constitutional violation is alleged to have occurred. All provisions of this Amendment shall be self-executing and severable.

CERTIFICATION OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Without passing on the advisability of the approval or rejection of the measure to be referred, I certify the summary of the proposed amendment in compliance with the March 14, 2025 order in Brown v. Yost, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Case No. 2:22-cv-01401.
